Welcome to the MDS Help Search Engine. With our regularly updated Help Portal, finding answers to all MDS related questions is now easier than ever. If you know what category your question pertains to, see the categories list above. Just choose a category and find the link that relates most directly to your problem. If you are unsure of which category your question may reside in, you may also search for your specific issue in the search bar located on the top right hand corner of the page. By searching for your problem, our site will show you any documents we think could relate to your specific question.

You may also browse the MDS Help site using the sidebar on the right hand side of the page. The sidebar includes many useful items such as links to recent posts, recent comments, and archives sorted by the date each post was added to our site.

Below this post you can find links to recent comments and posts as well as to the TSH Newsroom where you can find updated news and information on both The Systems House as well as the MDS Software.
